NECOBELAC takes part in national and international events

1.

Within the 2011 Spanish Conference on Health Science Information, Bibliosalud, the Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas de España (CSIS), the Spain partner of the NECOBELAC project, showed the project aims and activities "Estrategia del proyecto NECOBELAC para promover buenas prácticas en la publicación científica y el acceso abierto a la documentación científica en el área de salud pública".

2.

NECOBELAC was included in a presentation given during the Seminário Internacional Acesso livre ao conhecimento by the Portuguese project partner, Universidade do Minho, at the National School of Public Health Sergio Arouca, in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil (April 11-13, 2011).

3. NECOBELAC meets the general public at the Science Picnic in Warsaw (Poland)

NECOBELAC will be present at the 15th Science Picnic in Warsaw on May 28, 2011 to take part in the biggest outdoor science event in Europe.

Every year about over two hundred and fifty scientific institutions, universities, research institutes, museums and institutions of culture from Europe and abroad take part in this "outdoor" event. The leading theme of the 2011 Picnic is: "Freedom".

A bright and friendly NECOBELAC poster will be hosted at the stand of the NECOBELAC project partner Istituto Superiore di Sanità (Italy), promoting the slogan "free knowledge for a better life" according to the Institute's broader mission "research for public health".
