

Workshop on Writing Scientific Papers
Universidad de La Habana
Friday 11 March 2011

Lectures

- |        |  |                |
|--------|--|----------------|
| 30 min | Why it is important to produce quality information and how to do it  | Imti Choonara  |
| 15 min | Introduction to the workshop   | Pietro Panei   |
| 30 min | NECOBELAC project to train authors   | Carlos Agudelo |
| 15 min | Break  |                |
| 60 min | The editorial process  | Imti Choonara  |
| 30 min | Where and how to publish your data on pediatric health   | Carlos Agudelo |
| 30 min | Format and style of a scientific article   | Carlos Agudelo |
| 30 min | Group workParticipants (in small groups) will be asked to produce an initial draft article using their research results or to work on their existing draft papers. |                |
| 60 min | Presentation of group work and discussion  |                |

Conclusions

Tutors for small group discussions

Imti Choonara
Carlos Agudelo

Pietro Panei
Dave Knoppert?

Individuals who wish to discuss a paper they are writing need to submit this by email to imti.choonara@nottingham.ac.uk by 28 February 2011 at the latest. Individuals who do this will be offered a one to one discussion with one of the tutors. Other individuals will take part in small group discussions.